Dear Brothers and Sisters of Saint John the Baptist Parish Family
Dear Friends of our Parish,

During the entire Christmas Season, which we concluded this past Sunday with our celebrations of the Lord's Baptism, I was admiring your commitment to our faith and friendship with the Lord. It is always particularly encouraging to see so many of our young families praying in our church and reassuring us of the vitality of our parish.

Thank you for joining us for today's liturgies. We certainly are at the right place! In the Second Reading of this Second Sunday in Ordinary Time Saint Paul writes to the faithful of Corinth not only about various important aspects of their and our faith in the Risen Lord, but he introduces his First Letter to them with a witness statement regarding his and our own personal and spiritual identity:

“Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, [...],
to the church of God that is in Corinth, to you who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be holy,
with all those everywhere who call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours.
Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ (cf. 1 Cor 1:1-3).

As Saint Paul so often joyfully announces this “identity” deeply rooted in our sanctification in Christ, he also explains the profound meaning of our liturgical gatherings even during this season which is simply called “Ordinary Time”. It is through the miracle of the Eucharist, which we celebrate today, that we live as brothers and sisters in Christ. We gather, we pray, we celebrate the Eucharist, and so we are brought together as a family of faith through the Body and Blood of Christ.

Let us continue to be united in prayer of thanksgiving for this most precious gift and for the spiritual heritage of Saint John the Baptist which we proudly share with all past, present and future parishioners in this blessed place which we together call our “spiritual home.”

-Fr. Peter

Kindness is a Virtue to be Retrieved and Practiced Every Day in Order to Go Against the Tide and to Humanize our Societies.

The way Jesus chose to come to save us is the way on which he also invites us to follow him so as to continue to weave humanity – new, free, reconciled – together with him. This is the word: reconciled humanity. It is a style, a way of relating to us, from which derives the multiplicity of human virtues of good and dignified living together. One of these virtues is kindness, as a way of life that fosters fraternity and social friendship.

And speaking of kindness, at this moment, my thought naturally goes to dear Pope emeritus Benedict XVI who left us this morning. We are moved as we recall him as such a noble person, so kind. And we feel such gratitude in our hearts: gratitude to God for having given him to the Church and to the world; gratitude to him for all the good he accomplished, and above all, for his witness of faith and prayer, especially in these last years of his recollected life. Only God knows the value and the power of his intercession, of the sacrifices he offered for the good of the Church.

Kindness is an important aspect of the culture of dialogue, and dialogue is indispensable to live in peace, to live as brothers and sisters, who do not always agree – this is normal – but who nevertheless speak to each other, listen to each other and try to understand each other and to move toward one another. Kindness, then, is a part of dialogue. It is not only an issue of “good manners”; it is not a question of “etiquette”, of courteous behavior.... No. This is not what we mean when speaking of kindness. Instead, it is a virtue to be retrieved and practiced every day in order to go against the tide and to humanize our societies.

Congratulations to Michael Nasello, his dear wife Mia, as well as to his dear family members and friends on the blessed occasion of Michael's Baptism, and reception of the Sacraments of Confirmation and the Eucharist.

Michael's full initiation into the Catholic Church and our Parish Community took place during the 10am Mass on the Sunday of the Baptism of the Lord, through a special delegation received by Fr. Peter who administered to Michael these precious Sacraments of Christian Initiation.

As a young adult, Michael longed for a full Sacramental life and participation in the life of the Church. Thanks to the support and prayers of our Parish Family, including our priests and deacons, our faith formation team, staff members and parishioners who guided and supported him on his two-year journey of learning, preparation and spiritual discernment, Michael reached this very important personal and spiritual milestone. We are grateful to all of you who assisted Michael and have prayed for him. May God bless you and reward you many times!

Thank you also to all those who so prayerfully participated in the Mass at which Michael was Baptized, including many young families, young people and children from Saint John's Academy and Saint John's Faith Formation Programs - Confirmation and First Communion preparations, and in our CCD Program.

Holy Mary, Mother of God and our Mother, pray for us!

Saint John the Baptist, pray for us!
